Doris Morawitz & Florian Hrauda
Deloitte. | Global Employer Services

The Austria social security system provides customer-oriented and comprehensive protection in case of diseases, accidents, old age as well as unemployment. Additionally, various financial benefits for families are foreseen. In an international comparison, Austria ranks amongst the top nations regarding quality of life and the health system.

This informative evening gives you an overview on how the Austria social security system works and what benefits you can expect in regard to health, accident, pension and unemployment!

The presentation will be held in English and will be followed by a Q & A session.
