

Head of Purchasing (m/f/d)

Bad Leonfelden, Full time, Experience

Your tasks

- Development, optimization and further development of purchasing strategies
- Supplier management (search, selection, qualification, further development, complaint management) to ensure a reliable supply chain
- Independently conducting contract negotiations with suppliers at an international level
- Cost optimization and management
- Ensuring a stable supply in production as well as troubleshooting
- Management and professional development of strategic and operational purchasing
- Close collaboration with other teams (Sales, R&D, Production) and interface with our global purchasing network

Your Profile

- Completed technical training or commercial training with a high affinity for technology
- Several years of professional experience with management responsibility in strategic and operational purchasing, preferably automotive
- Communicative, assertive personality with negotiation skills
- Strong cost and quality awareness
- Independent, responsible and reliable way of working
- Profound knowledge of German and English
- Good IT knowledge (MS Office, CAD, ERP,...)

We offer you

- Excellent working atmosphere in an up-and-coming company
- Exciting environment and excellent development opportunities
- Get to work stress-free without traffic jams
- Flexible working hours in the flextime model
- Numerous benefits such as company bike, discounted lunch, Vivo Card

At Miba we are convinced that diversity creates and drives innovation. That's why we live by fairness and equal opportunities and warmly welcome people with diversity in terms of different origins, cultures, religions, genders, ages, disabilities and sexual orientations.

For this position we offer a salary of at least €5,000 per month (gross), supplemented by social benefits and any allowances. With appropriate experience and qualifications, overpayment is common. The collective agreement for the metal trade.